Legislature Hears Long Debate As To Cannon And Anti-Cannon Ideas This Morning.

INHERITANCE TAX IS NOW TALKED

This Evening Other Important Matters Come Up For Consideration In The Special Committee Rooms, Of State Importance.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 24.—Assemblyman Harkness, a social democrat, offered a joint resolution condemning Speaker Cannon as an arbitrary ruler, and declaring the opposition to him. The measure was debated and laid over but may be adopted later.

Inheritance Tax.
The inheritance tax bill revised by a joint taxation committee, which is likely to become law, was introduced this morning. It provides for 10 per cent tax on first $50,000 inherited, 5 per cent between $50,000 and $100,000, and 3 per cent over $100,000, counties to get 10 per cent, twice as much as under present law.

More Testimony.
The senatorial campaign investigation today developed an offer of "several hundred dollars" made to Lester Litton of Nelsville, if he would run for assembly, and pledge his vote "for Stephenson and the liquor interests."

Tonight's Work.
Tonight the assembly judiciary committee will take up the question of the strike injunction, together with the resolution asking the federal congress to amend the United States statutes so as to legalize organizations of labor unions and agricultural societies.

Both Democrats.
Both measures are of social democratic origin. The resolution on the subject of strike injunction asks that the Wisconsin legislature request the passage by congress of a bill drawn on the lines proposed in the La Follette platform which was presented to the republican national convention in Chicago last summer as a plank of the "Wisconsin idea." The resolution was proposed at the national convention and that the delegates from Wisconsin unanimously supported it, as a part of the La Follette platform.

Much Support.
It is believed that the resolution will receive considerable support from both the democrats and the La Follette republicans, as the democratic national platform last summer virtually adopted this idea. It is said that the La Follette members are pledged to the idea.

Wants Change.
The resolution is demanding a change

NEW OFFICERS OF PENNSYLVANIA RY.

It is Anticipated That Charles E. Pugh Will Succeed Capt. John P. Green as Vice President.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Philadelphia, Pa., March 24.—One of the matters discussed at today's meeting of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was the promotion and changes among the high officials of the company that will necessitate by the retirement of Capt. John P. Green, who has been first vice-president of the company for the past twelve years. Capt. Green will be seventy years old next July and in conformity with the rules of the company he will then be retired for good.

Capt. Green is one of the best known railroad men in America. Shortly after the close of the civil war he entered the service of the Pennsylvania company as private secretary to Col. Thomas A. Scott, then first vice-president of the company. In 1880 he became secretary and treasurer of the Milwaukee and Minnesota Railway Company, a service in which he remained three years. In 1889 he resumed his position as secretary to Colonel Scott, holding it until 1894, when he was promoted assistant to the president. His next promotion came in 1892, when he was made fourth vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Four years later he was elected third vice-president, and in 1897, second vice-president of the company, a position which gave him supervision over the lines west of Pittsburgh. Since 1897 he has been first vice-president of the company.

It is anticipated that Charles E. Pugh, the present second vice-president, will succeed Capt. Green. Samuel R. Roa, the present third vice-president, will then get the place now occupied by Mr. Pugh, and John L. Thayer, now fourth vice-president, will move up. Capt. Green probably will continue to be president of the Delaware railroad and will be connected with other subsidiary companies in the Pennsylvania system. There has been some suggestion of creating for him the position of chairman of the board.

BLIND HYMN-WRITER NOW EIGHTY-NINE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Bridgeport, Conn., March 24.—Fanny J. Crosby, famous throughout the English-speaking world as the blind hymn writer, entered upon her ninetieth year today. At the home of a relative in this city, where she has lived for many years, many letters and messages of congratulation poured in from all over the country.

Miss Crosby has been totally blind since she was six years old. At the age of 15 she entered the Institute for the Blind in New York and after her graduation she was a teacher for ten years. She is the author of about 4,000 hymns, among the best known being "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Jesus the Victor of Life," "Will You and I," "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross." Besides her hymns she has composed many ballads and lyrics and written the words for several cantatas.

Miss Crosby retains a deep interest in all sorts of religious activity, in spite of her advanced age. Recently she journeyed to Springfield, Mass., to attend the revival meetings conducted there by Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman and Charles Alexander.

In order to give the insured persons some share in the control of the system, the pensions will be fixed by local insurance offices, composed of employers and employees under the presidency of an official who is an expert insurance actuary.

The evidence was decidedly against him and he was found guilty. The defendant is also accused of implication in the stealing and butchering of a cow owned by E. F. Dero, a Port Edwards hotel-keeper. His case will be tried before the circuit court in May.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN BRITAIN'S NAVY

Admiral Lord Doreford Is Practically Retired From Service By New Orders.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

London, March 24.—The important changes recently announced by the Admiralty, and which have come in for much adverse criticism from the press and public alike, were put into effect today. The so-called Channel Fleet is most affected by the changes. Heretofore this fleet, under the command of Admiral Lord Charles Doreford, has been regarded as the chief fighting unit of the first line of Great Britain's naval force. Now the more important vessels of the Channel fleet, under the command of Vice Admiral Sir Archibald Berkeley Milne, are to form the second division of the main fleet, under supreme command of Vice Admiral Sir William H. May.

This means the practical retirement from the service of Admiral Lord Charles Doreford, who in the ordinary course would have held the Channel command for another year. His premature retirement, it is openly hinted, is due to his severe criticisms of the management of the navy when he was a member of parliament.

The public has been accustomed to regard Lord Doreford as one of the most capable officers in the British navy. He has been in the service fifty years, and his chief fame was gained at the time of the bombardment of Alexandria and in the operations in connection with Lord Wolseley's Egyptian campaign.

BILL TO TAX WATER POWER IS NOT JUST

Wausau Manufacturers Appear Before Forestry Committee in Opposition to Bill.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Wausau, Wis., March 24.—Neal Brown, G. D. Jones and W. L. Edwards of this city were at Madison last night appearing before the forestry committee of the legislature in opposition to the bill providing for a state tax on water powers. They represented the Wausau Street Railway company, the Marathon Paper Mills company, the Rothchild's Water Power company, the Trapp's Water Power company and the Wausau Paper Mills company. Mr. Brown, in giving his reasons for being against the bill, said: "The bill is confiscatory. It means double taxation. We have been paying taxes on our water powers. The assessment of water powers is included in the assessment of the tributary land. 'The bill arises from a misconception of the property rights of the state. It proceeds on the assumption that the state either owns the power as a whole, or owns the water itself, or that it owns the exclusive use of the water and makes us tenants. Neither is correct.'"

COUNTY OPTION A SERIOUS PROBLEM

JOINT COMMITTEE ON STATE AFFAIRS HAS MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., March 24.—For five hours yesterday the joint committee on state affairs of the legislature listened to arguments for and against the county option bill. The friends of the measure were given two hours to present arguments, during which time addresses were made by Senator S. M. Marsh; A. E. Matheson, Janesville; A. S. Baker, Evansville; Frank W. Hall, Madison; U. G. Humphrey, Milwaukee; W. H. Wheelwright, Richland Center; J. P. Baker and Mrs. M. A. B. Smith, Madison. During the afternoon the principal arguments made against the bill were by Judge Paul D. Carpenter and J. V. Bryan. In the evening a second session was held and further arguments were made on both sides.

Shortly two hundred people were at the capital yesterday afternoon to hear the arguments on the county option measure, introduced in the senate by Senator Marsh. So many people came that the hearing was held in order to accommodate the large number of people.

After outlining the provisions of the bill, Senator Marsh declared that the majority should rule. He said the revoking of the liquor license by the town had become such a habit that it had been fastened upon them. "This is absurd," declared Senator Marsh. "It is simply spending $4 to get out of a $100 fine. The question is whether we are to legislate in the interests of the brewers and the liquor interests or in the interests of all of the people of the state."

Senator Marsh said that if his vote would determine for the state whether there should be state prohibition or not, he would vote against it, as he did not consider that Wisconsin was ready for the change.

Mr. Matheson, law partner of Senator J. M. Whitcomb of Janesville, said that by some towns in a county being dry and others wet, the dry towns lost the benefits of what they voted for as people would go into the "wet" town and buy the liquor and come home. He said there was one town in Rock county where the opposition to the saloon was about equally divided and in order to carry the election people were being brought to the town-ten days in advance and boarded at the cost of the liquor interests.

Former Assemblyman A. S. Baker of Evansville told of his experience in a town where there were no saloons and in managing a business without the aid of laborers addicted to the liquor habit. He favored county option, believed that no city had flourished as Evansville had without the saloon and added, "It is all nonsense to say that a town will be dead without the saloon."

Frank W. Hall of Madison said that the county was the correct unit of division and said that statistics showed that 75 per cent of the poverty, 94 per cent of the crime, and 25 per cent of insanity could be traced to the saloon. "It is almost a charge of criminal negligence," he added.

U. G. Humphrey read letters from Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes George McKerraw, O. H. Ingram of Eau Claire, and Alderman W. F. Hiller of Racine, favoring the county option bill. John P. Baker, attorney of the anti-saloon league, said that there were 760 municipalities in the state "wet," and 800 "dry" at the present time.

Judge Carpenter appeared for the Merchants and Manufacturers' association of Milwaukee. In a quiet way he argued that so far the talks had been made by prohibitionists, who recognized that county option was one more step toward state prohibition. He then depicted the miserable failure of state prohibition in Vermont and said that the passage of the county option law would result in confiscation of property, "against all of the elements of natural justice." He was opposed to county option, which was nothing more than "prohibition in spots."

"That it was better to have the liquor question controlled by each municipality was the argument of Mr. Bryan of La Crosse, who represented the manufacturers and jobbers of that city. He said that he recognized that many a family had come to grief through drink, but he knew of 'families that had come to grief because of the fact that a man didn't know enough to like a drink.' He declared that the best that could be done was to let each town decide for itself and have to defend the personal liberty question. This bill will probably be recommended for passage, but it is doubtful if the assembly will enact it into law."

CARLE NOMINATED BY REPUBLICANS

CARRIED EVERY WARD IN THE CITY AT PRIMARY.

CUMMINGS' NEAT MAJORITY

Connell Defeated O'Hara in Second and Rehefled Again Nominated in Fourth—Brett Defeated for Supervisor.

Tuesday's primary demonstrated that it needs a contest throughout the entire city to bring out a full vote for nominations. With the exception of the Fourth, where a bitter republican-nomination fight was in progress, the vote in the other four wards was unusually light, little interest having been shown.

Wilbur F. Carle was named as the republican nominee by a neat majority over his two republican opponents, Victor P. Richardson and William Henry Harrison Macdonald. Mr. Carle had a total of 822 votes out of the 1,445 cast on the republican ticket, Richardson receiving 511 and Macdonald 52.

The democrats nominated John C. Cummings, who received 353 votes, the total democratic vote for mayor, and will be Mr. Carle's opponent at the regular election which comes April 6th. Mr. Carle's nomination for Mayor will lead to the selection of a new candidate for alderman from the first ward to fill the place made vacant by his resignation.

Roy Cummings carried off the republican honors for the city clerk with a total of 1,023 votes, his opponent, Frank Kennedy, having but 285 votes throughout the city. Louis Skavlen, despite his withdrawal from the race, received a total of 68 votes. Frank Smith received the democratic nomination for city clerk with a vote of 272. He has no opposition and will be Cummings' opponent at election.

The surprise of the day came in the defeat of Alderman John O'Hara in the second ward for renomination by former Alderman Connell on the democratic ticket, and the renomination of Alderman Rehefled in the fourth over Grundy and Knuth, the other two democratic candidates, and Donald's defeat of Brett for democratic nomination for supervisor in the fourth.

Connell's victory in the second ward was the result of hard work on the part of the candidate himself and his friends from all parts of the city, and he received 101 votes as against 30 for O'Hara. This makes Connell the opponent of Scott at the election and should result in a red-hot contest for the election.

In the Fourth ward Grundy received 70 votes for aldermanic nomination; Knuth, 66; and Rehefled, 122. This was a surprise as it was generally talked during the day the fight was between Grundy and Knuth, Denning also won from his opponent, Brett, for the supervisorship by a total of 135 to 109.

Among the features of the primary might be termed the votes cast for names not printed on the tickets. In all the wards individuals received votes on both tickets written in by admiring friends. There were but eleven democratic votes cast in the Third ward and seventeen in the first. The vote for the candidates by wards was as follows, exclusive of the individual nominations written in on the different ballots:

First Ward DEMOCRATIC.

Mayor—Nichols, 17.

Table with 6 columns: FOR MAYOR, 1st Wd., 2d Wd., 3d Wd., 4th Wd., 5th Wd., Total.

Table with 6 columns: FOR CITY CLERK, 1st Wd., 2d Wd., 3d Wd., 4th Wd., 5th Wd., Total.

Cummings' majority—678.

Two Large Audiences Are Well Pleased with Presentation of "Isle of Spice."

Elaine von Thiele, a niece of W. T. Thiele, a prominent musician of this city, who played the leading role of Teresa in yesterday's performance of the "Isle of Spice," won her way into the hearts of the two large audiences who witnessed the play, by her clever singing and dancing. She was forced to respond to six encores to the catchy tune "Peggy Brady."

The play itself, although it has been on the road for some years, has not lost much of its attractiveness as was shown by the frequent applause which greeted the efforts of the company. The two songs, "Star of Fate" and "Oh, What a Lovely Dream," were especially well received. The comedy work of Harry Watson and H. B. Williams as Shubay Macdonald and Mickey O'Grady made a big hit. The chorus danced gracefully, although it was hardly large enough to remove the look of emptiness from the stage.

BITS OF HUMOR

JUST IN TIME.
She—Jeez, dear, the doctor says I need a change of climate.
Hubby—All right, the weather man says it will be colder tomorrow.

THE LATEST FAD.
Reporter—Do you think this long-distance walking benefits you?
Mr. Economy—Sure, I save 5 cents every trip.

A SAFETY RAISER.
Author—Has my play been accepted?
Manager—Well, you see the members of the reading committee want one of the three acts cut out.
Author—I won't take about that.
Manager—Unfortunately for you each of them want a different act struck out.

THEIR FINISH.
Mrs. Crow—James, have you ever thought what will become of us when we are old?
Mr. Crow—Oh! I suppose we'll wind up as usual on toast at some table d'hôte restaurant.

COULDN'T UNDERSTAND IT.
Mother—Did you get that position as an office boy?
Son—No.
Mother—Why not?
Son—Well, he asked me if I was a good whistler and I told him I was the best on our street and he said I wouldn't do. He must want a regular professional.

WOULD NEED BE.
Miss Foot—When I marry, it shall be to leave here, who fears nothing.
Mr. Foot—You sure it will.

THE GOOD OLD KID DAYS

LINCOLN'S MISTAKE.
Henry—Yes, Lincoln was a mighty brave man, I'll admit, but I never had any use for him.
Helen—Why, how is that?
Henry—He didn't cut down a cherry tree or do any other stunt that would give a fellow a chance to work off fakes on him.

NOT DEAR AT ALL.
She—Isn't it going to prove rather expensive entertaining your aunt for a whole week?
He—Not a bit. There's an inquest, three christenings, two weddings and a funeral, all on different days.

WOULD HEAR FROM HIM LATER.
Bobby—What did your father say when you told him I loved you?
Edith—Nothing. He went right on practicing with the dumbbells.

THE VERY WORST.
Helen—But, father, that handsome foreign count says he will do something desperate and awful if I will not marry him.
Father—He will. He will have to work.

STOOD BY HIS WORD.
Customer—The hair-grower which you sold me today is a swindle. You advertised that it would help me after I had tried all other remedies.
Hairer—Well, have you tried all the others?

THE CAUSE.
Bell—That young Dr. Wilson calls on the little Widow Black every day.
Nell—She must be very ill.
Bell—No, very pretty.

THE VERY PLACE.
Wythe—I don't know what to do with my boy. He seems to know nothing. Cannot remember a thing, and is irritable and cross.
Shurtles—Why don't you get him in the bureau of information at some railroad station?

USED LAMPS.
Johnny—Buy, pop.
Pop—What, my son?
Johnny—How can mother have gas for ever when we never burned gas?

ANXIOUS TO KNOW.
Doctor—You have some sort of poison in your system.
Patient—Shouldn't wonder. What was that last stuff you gave me?

any smoker can solve to his advantage.

When CONTRACT 5-cent straight cigar costs more to make—

When dealers are satisfied to pay more for it on account of its high quality—

And when the smoker is asked to pay NO more than for a cigar made to sell 6, 7 or 8 for a quarter—

The question is—which 5-cent cigar will the intelligent smoker buy?

How to Test a Newspaper Advertisement

Is it
Pertinent?

A publisher of a country newspaper had tried his hardest to interest a piano and organ store in the use of space in his paper and was at his wits end, when a farmer subscription solicitor, hearing of his quandary, suggested some excellent "pertinent copy."

Instead of talking about how pianos and organs were made, or who made them, he headed his advertisement "Why do the Boys Leave the Farm?"

He then went on to explain that to keep the boys on the farm, the home life should be made attractive with a piano or an organ, which the advertiser was ready to furnish.

A newspaper advertisement should deal with an article from the purchaser's standpoint. "How is it made?" is not so important to him as "What will it do for me?"

It is often well to cater to pretended motives, or subtly suggest the real ones.

Many a piano is bought for a larger purpose than to develop the musical talent of a family. The purchase actually marks their social advancement from the breadwinning state to the possession of some of the recognized luxuries.

Suggestion, recognized as a most potent factor in personal salesmanship is no less effectively utilized on the printed page.

A father who felt that the possession of a diamond would foster the love of display and extravagance in his daughter, would refuse to buy her one of the jewels.

Yet he would quickly change his decision if won over by the suggestion that in no other way could he make so concrete or permanent an expression of the sentiment he entertained for her.

It is oftentimes a tortuous mental route that leads to the purse strings of the public.

In planning a newspaper message, therefore, it is well to examine it from this point of view, "Is this copy adapted to the results I wish to secure?"

ly saloons and brothels should be driven out of the city as one would stamp out a plague. If the saloons are to exist they must live as law-abiding citizens should, as any business house does of reputable standing. A good move in this direction would be the passage of an ordinance requiring all liquor dealers to make down all screens, so that a complete view of their places of business could be obtained from the street from Saturday night until Monday and after eleven at night.

ROCK RIVER SURVEY

The great value of the proposed survey of Rock river with a view of making it a navigable stream, will not be felt for many years, but when it is it can not be overestimated. To bring to the very doors of Janesville manufacturers a cheaper mode of transporting their finished products to a new market, of bringing their unfinished supplies here cheaper than they can now secure them, can not be overestimated. Then, too, the consideration of cheaper power created by new dams which would have to be built to control the waterway is an important feature that must not be lost sight of. Tiding it all in all, it is an important step in the right direction. Congressmen Cooper writes a local gentleman interested in the project that the survey is to be begun at once and asks if there is anything more he can do to hasten the work or aid in the development of the idea.

So an Englishman nearly reached the South Pole. Well, the pole is still there waiting to be discovered and as a result of L. Shackleton's trip it is to be expected that dashes for the south magnetic pole will be frequent from now on.

The next thing that is up for settlement is the question of who is chief of police of Janesville or whether we have one or not. It is the Supreme court which will decide this question, so the law will be properly defined sometime in the near future.

Congress will do well to remember that the country as a whole expects them to do their duty when it comes to the question of passing a tariff measure and they should not consider merely one portion of this vast nation.

The new council will have the question of an Interurban franchise to begin working on and it will be interesting to see whether they intend to further the work of building up the city or not.

Now that we have nominated a city ticket it is the place of every republican to get down to work to elect the men named at yesterday's primary.

So Governor Curry of New Mexico has decided that he will not resign after all, but will hold onto his job as long as he can.

Taft is still sitting on the lid down at Washington and from all accounts the lid is being properly cared for.

Talks.

GOING, GOING, GONE!

On the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Lincoln, the emancipator, 200 "white slaves" were sold at auction.

What!

Strange as it may seem, these men were actually sold in a Brooklyn church to any one who would offer food, shelter and employment for them.

These 200 men, of various ages and abilities, were over-the-fence-and-out men.

Discouraged in the long, vain search for employment, they offered themselves to the bidders.

In a previous sale some fifty men were sold by the same auctioneer. The plan originated with a merchant who advertised himself for sale in the newspapers. He sold himself by this method to a woman who sent him to run a chicken farm in New Jersey.

Among those sold on Lincoln day were several college graduates who in default of any other work had been shoveling snow for the city.

Unlike the auction sales of slaves before the war, each man wore a black mask to conceal his identity.

You thought slavery and involuntary servitude had been done away by Lincoln's proclamation?

Alas!

Men always will, until the day of the millennium, be in bondage, some voluntarily and some because of misfortune, some of their own volition or fault, some because they got between the upper and nether millstones.

The spectacle of men selling themselves on the block makes one grow sick at heart.

Nevertheless—

The world is growing better and saner and more merciful—slowly, but surely. Slowly, but surely, we are getting further away from slavery and tyranny and injustice.

In this connection the inspiring poem written by George Alfred Townsend some years ago is appropos, and we quote from it the following lines:

Deep the wells of gentle childhood, cool the spring beside the hut.
Millions more as poor as Lincoln see the door he has not shut.
Not till we have put in cancer every poor white's cottage through
Shall the great republic wither or the inner bud die.

Stand around your great commander, Lay aside your silly fears,
Every Lincoln carries freedom's car along
A hundred years.

NO LAXITY

The first lesson to the violators of the city ordinances and the state laws in demanding the council enforce the state law and withdraw the licenses of two of the local saloon-keepers should not be followed by a period of laxity on the part of the authorities. There are other saloons that demand similar treatment and they should receive no mercy whatsoever. Disorders

ROOSEVELT FEELING "BULLY."

Kermil is Sea Sick But Father is Not, Says Wireless.

On board the S. S. Hamburg, Mar. 21. (Via wireless).—As the Hamburg steamed majestically eastward, Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, who left New York yesterday on his trip to Africa, is well and in joyous mood.

The former president is a good sailor. Before his selection to the presidency he visited Europe and the continent more than once, and he is not a subject to mal-de-mer, otherwise known as sea sickness. With his son Kermit, however, it is different. Young Roosevelt has been suffering from sea sickness and did not eat breakfast with his father this morning.

Col. Roosevelt said when he appeared for the morning meal, he appeared for the morning meal, that he felt "bully" and was "delighted" with the trip so far as it had gone. He said he slept like a top. He spent the first hours at sea, resting after the fatigue of his strenuous departure. He, with other members of his party, ate at Capt. Thumelster's table, and everything possible is being done for his comfort.

"MICHIGAN MAN" "CON" VICTIM.

Dr. Marriett Hutchins Swindled by Sharpers in London.

London, (Mar. 24).—"How anyone can be deceived by such simple tricks is amusing," said Judge Wallace when he passed sentence on three men who had swindled Dr. Marriett Hutchins, president of the board of education of Lake county, Mich., out of $1,000 in cash and a diamond ring.

The police speedily caught the thieves after they had tricked Dr. Hutchins, and the judge sentenced them to 12, 15 and nine months' imprisonment respectively. The confidence men, according to the testimony, succeeded in getting Dr. Hutchins' valuables as a guarantee of good faith, after they had requested him to assist them in the distribution of $50,000 which, according to their story, a philanthropist had left for charitable purposes.

POISONED BY WOMAN'S BITE.

Mrs. Florence Nichols of Peoria May Die from Wounds.

Peoria, Ill., Mar. 24.—Lying on a cot in the St. Francis hospital, this city, Mrs. Florence Nichols faces death as the result of being bitten on the arm by Miss Clara Kilpatrick in a fight last Saturday evening.

Following the infliction of the injury little attention was paid to the wound, but Sunday blood poison developed and the victim was seized with convulsions resembling rabies. The Kilpatrick woman was arrested on the charge of mayhem and sent to the county jail to await the outcome of Mrs. Nichols' injury.

Texas Tornado Kills One.

VOTERS NOMINATED SOME CANDIDATES NOT ON BALLOTS

Wilbur F. Carle Resigned as Alderman from the First Ward—Names of Charles Evans and W. H. Merritt Mentioned as His Successors.

H. L. McNamara of the republican committee and City Clerk Arthur E. Duder canvassed the election returns this morning. J. J. Cunningham of the democratic committee was unable to be present.

"The usual primary complications were in evidence. Scour of Wights and Messieurs Richardson" received both the democratic and republican nominations, his vote from the latter party totaling 58. In the second ward the republican gave Council 11 votes for alderman and O'Hara 1. In the fourth ward the republican vote for alderman candidates stood, as follows: Grundy, 21; Kautz, 19; Rehfeld, 16; Dr. J. P. Pember, 10; and W. H. Macdonald, 9.

The amended provision of the primary law relating to such a contingency provides that in case a candidate is named on some ticket other than the one he runs on, he shall be held to be the nominee of that party under the designation of which his name appeared on the ticket.

This will prevent Mr. Rehfeld from accepting the republican nomination. If any one of the other candidates wishes to run he will have to file his acceptance of the nomination within five days. Another amendment to the primary law provides that in order to count for anything the number of votes for a candidate thus written in must not be less than the number of signatures which would have been necessary had he circulated nomination papers. This would not exclude any of the parties above-mentioned and they now have an opportunity to persuade one of their number to get into the race. It is known that neither Grundy nor Kautz would accept a republican nomination under the circumstances and it therefore lies between Dr. Pember and Mr. Macdonald.

There is the same sort of a situation in the case of the supervisorship in the fourth ward. J. A. Douding defeated F. M. Britt for the democratic nomination, but Mr. Britt received 21 republican votes to 19 for Douding, and can have that nomination if he files a declaration of acceptance within the stipulated five days.

In the second ward eleven democrats wrote in the name of J. P. Hutzlinsen as a nominee for supervisor and he may figure in the contest in case he decides to accept. The names of W. Malone, J. J. Cunningham, and Frank George were written in for school commissioner, but as none received more than one vote each, that portion of the ticket will remain blank.

In the fifth ward J. J. Dullin received both the democratic and republican nominations for alderman. He received 13 republican votes to 6 for Fred O'Donnell, 1 for Fred Foltz, 1 for Fred Root, and 1 for Edward Lutherman. The republicans made an effort to name a supervisor. This democratic ward's total vote of 173 for republican candidates for mayor as compared with 35 for its own candidate shows that politics was played there to a finish.

Wilbur F. Carle this morning resigned as alderman from the First ward, this resignation to take effect at once. This will make it necessary for the ward to fill the vacancy by placing individual nominations on the ticket. These individual nomination papers must have at least 20 signatures and must be filed before April 2 if the candidates are to have their names on the ticket. Their names will have to go in the "Individual Nominations" row on the voting machine, though their party affiliation can be placed after their names if they so desire. It is understood that Charles Evans may enter the race and the name of W. H. Merritt, republican, is also mentioned.

MONEY NOT NEEDED WHERE BIGLER WENT

Jack Bigler of Chippewa Falls Drank Carbolic Acid in Apartments of Former Wife.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., March 24.—Yesterday afternoon Jack Bigler committed suicide in the apartments of his former wife by drinking carbolic acid. All forenoon Bigler had acted in a peculiar manner. At noon his former wife went to the home of Adolph Bigler for her dinner. About that time Jack Bigler went to Adolph Bigler, his brother, and bade him goodbye, saying he was going away. "If you are going away," said Adolph, "you will need more money and I'll let you have it."

"Where I'm going I don't need any money," replied his brother and Adolph wondered what he meant.

Shortly after one o'clock Mrs. Bigler returned to her dressing apartment and found the door blocked. Suspecting something was wrong she summoned Adolph Bigler, who keeps a saloon on the ground floor. When the door was opened they found the lifeless body of John Bigler lying on the floor with an empty carbolic acid bottle beside him.

Last week Mrs. Bigler secured a divorce from her husband for cruelty and non-support. Since then he has annoyed her greatly and several times the officers had to intervene to keep him from his wife's apartments.

There is much sympathy for the wife who has made a persistent struggle for herself and two sons. She has been a hard working dressmaker for years and kept her family in good circumstances.

The deceased was about forty years of age and a brother of ex-Mayor Bigler of this city.

He was conscious when picked up, but in a dazed condition and was unable to state what he had been doing when he fell. His injuries were attended to by Dr. R. W. Selden and he was able to walk a little last night. Several people who saw him fall declared his escape a miraculous one.

BIG SHRINKAGE IN TOTAL VOTES CAST

Decrease of 513 as Compared with 1908—805 Less Than Aggregate Polled in 1907.

A shrinkage of 513 in the total votes cast at the spring primaries this year as compared with the aggregate of 1908, and 805 as compared with the total polled in the majority contest in 1907, is the measure of the general apathy that prevailed in Janesville yesterday. The official canvass which was made this morning shows that 1452 visited the polls yesterday. For purposes of comparison the following tables will prove interesting:

ASSAILS THE PAYNE BILL

Champ Clark Opens the Democratic Attack.

OPPOSED TO HIGHER LIVING

Taft's Position on the Income Tax is Brought into Debate by Representative James Who Recalls Speech Made in 1907.

Washington, Mar. 24.—The first Democratic gun was trained on the Payne tariff bill in the house today when Champ Clark of Missouri, the minority leader, resumed the debate on the measure and assailed it as an error, indefensible and sure to bring about a higher cost of living in the United States.

Occupying the entire session of the house yesterday Mr. Payne of New York, chairman of the committee on ways and means, concluded his speech in explanation of the bill. He was on his feet almost all of the five hours and ten minutes that he had the floor. At times he gave evidence of being greatly fatigued and leaned on his desk, hoping in that way to get a little rest.

The majority leader began his speech in no particularly good frame of mind, but as the day wore on he exhibited the best of humor. He closed amid the plaudits of the Republicans, who crowded about him and extended their congratulations. His arguments covered a wide field.

Not Injurious to Farmers.

He took the position that the bill would not injure the tin plate or steel industries of the United States, and that free hides would not be a menace to the farmers. He discussed the inheritance tax at great length, and said it was preferable to an income tax because it would not give rise to perjury or fraud. He held to the view, also, that an income tax was wholly unconstitutional.

The minority leader, Mr. Clark of Missouri, followed, and had proceeded but a minute or two when, at the suggestion of Mr. Payne, he suspended until 11 o'clock this morning.

Explains Inheritance Tax.

"We wanted some more revenue, about $20,000,000," said Mr. Payne. "We wanted to make both ends meet under this bill and therefore we provided for an inheritance tax." He stated that a proposition for an income tax was before the committee, but there were strong doubts about the constitutionality of such a tax.

He was interrupted by Mr. Clark with an inquiry if it was not true that President Taft had intimated that an income tax law could be drawn that the supreme court as now constituted would declare unconstitutional.

Mr. Payne replied that he did not believe President Taft ever made such an assertion.

That President Taft did make such a suggestion was the contention of Mr. James of Kentucky. In 1907, at Columbus, O., he said, Mr. Taft intimated that proposition in a speech which was taken down stenographically and printed in the newspapers.

Mr. Payne, while not doubting Mr. James' statement, said he did not know whether Mr. Taft took that view or not. "I do not think, however," he said, "that there is any authority for such a law."

Democrats Ask Questions.

Both Mr. James and Mr. Clark pointed to the fact that certain portions of the income tax provision of the Wilson bill, which were not held to be unconstitutional could be enforced and inquired why something was not done to enforce that law.

Mr. Payne's response was that it was because it was not believed an income tax law was constitutional. But even so, he said, he would vastly prefer an inheritance tax because an income tax occasioned perjury and fraud unending.

The "education" of the public has cost a lot of money, but it has not been in vain. Each year brings a larger consumption of whole wheat foods. We have done our share in the "educational campaign."

In conformity with a decision of the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, the white flour millers have agreed to stop bleaching flour. Hereafter nothing but "golden" flour will be manufactured by the white flour millers.

ment and can also take lots of it. In a fight with Nelson, Hyland will in all probability mix it. Of course at that time Nelson is a star, but even so, Hyland figures that he might punish Nelson's "bread basket" enough to hurt him.

Dick Hyland has met some of the best lightweights in the business. Besides being what might be termed a "tough" fighter, he is also a boxer, but cleverness will not do him much good against Nelson, to which Joe Gans will testify. Murphy, Green, Imholz, Thompson, Young Corbett and a hundred other lightweights have bet Hyland in the squared circle and he gave them all a hard fight.

CAUSE FOR ALARM

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health, and insatiable appetite is a sure symptom of diabetes.

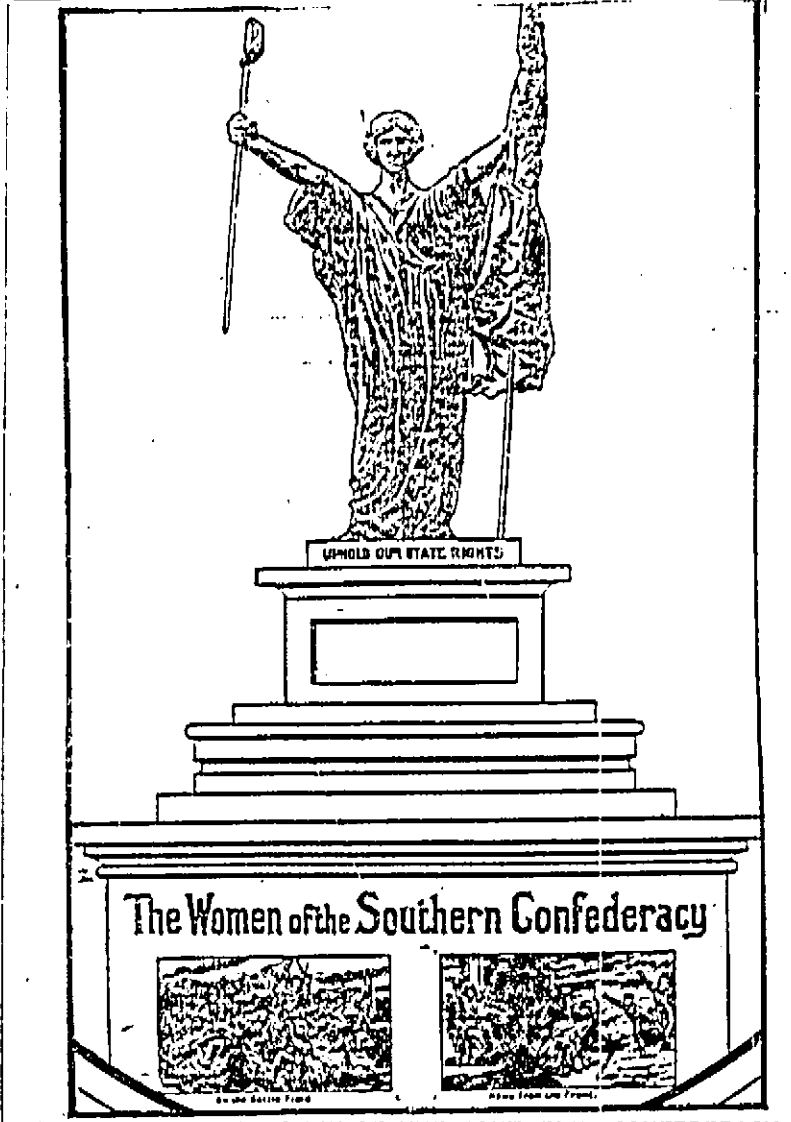

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone in Janesville who is suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of anyone who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal.

They are made from the prescription of a physician who devoted all his time to the study and treatment of stomach troubles. They give very prompt relief, neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, create good digestion and assimilation, naturally regulate the bowels, promote perfect nutrition, and create a permanent cure of all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 12 days treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 45c and 85c. Smith Drug Co.

MEMORIAL TO THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

BY HENDRICK.

Washington, D. C.—There is a concerted movement in existence today for the first time, which as far as purpose the general erection through the south of memorial monuments commemorating the loyalty and patriotism of the women of the southern confederacy. While shafts have arisen in every part of the south to the heroes of the men who battled for the confederacy, yet but one, a modest monument at Fort Mill, South Carolina, has been erected to perpetuate the even greater fame of its self-sacrificing women.

But all this is to be changed. Monuments are to go up in 15 different states—all identically alike—of metal, from the figure just perfected by the Italian sculptor Louis Amato, now living in Washington, D. C.

The memorial statue decided upon to serve as a model contains as its crowning figure a Confederate woman, classically garbed. The statue to the crown of her head is nine feet high. With one hand she extends the beloved flag of the Confederacy, and with the other a drawn sword. It is a correct embodiment of that type of woman who made the gallant defense of the south possible.

At the base of the statue two relief plates are provided, showing typical rebellion scenes in which the work of the women of the Confederacy was apparent. One plate is called "On the Battlefield," and shows a Confederate woman in her tender ministrations to the wounded, serving as a faithful nurse. The other plate is called "News From Home," and shows the family on the porch, fearfully welcoming the messenger bringing news from the front line.

It is proposed now to organize each of 15 southern states to further provide the balance of funds necessary to complete the memorial program.

To secure these bronze figures, namely the figures of the women and the figures of the relief plates, requires a total sum of $5,000. This amount does not include the pedestal. Thus, while the pedestal will differ, the statues will be identical in all the states.
